

A new service to help you achieve an ethical supply chain

WHY?

Jewellery customers are increasingly keen to purchase sustainable, meaningful and compassionate pieces.

- 66% of consumers are willing to spend more on products coming from sustainable brands.
- 60% of True-Luxury consumers (spending over £32k a year on luxury goods) are influenced by sustainability values in their buying choices.

Yet for many small jewellers, taking steps to ensure they have the right policies and procedures in place can be complex and expensive.
